CABINET KUDOS

Cape Town-based furniture design company Kino, headed by product designers Nico Hendriksz and Anton Louw, was last year's winner in the Best of 100% Talent category at 100% Design South Africa. The duo has once again come out on top at the show, with their masterfully crafted Heildronk Kas and the Neut Drinks Cabinet being named Best Furniture Design at this year's event, proving that Kino is longer just a name to watch. kino.co.za

ISLAND LIFE

Mothercity Hardware has come a long way since launching its debut sideboard and console lockers a few years ago. Its latest piece, an industrial-cool, freestanding kitchen island, is a master stroke by founder-designer Marco Simal: not only is it fully customisable, it can also be matched with a curated collection of fittings and appliances. Not surprising it won the award for Best Product Design at 100% Design South Africa. mothercityhardware.com

ON SHOW

From 12 to 14 October, the Sanlam Handmade Contemporary Fair takes place on the rooftop of Johannesburg's Hyde Park Corner, showcasing the best in design, food and wine from artisans across the continent. Pavilions designed by five creatives will serve as conceptual focal points throughout the fair, linking exhibitors with similar offerings: think the Textile Pavilion by Sindiso Khumalo, the Homeware Pavilion by Michael Chandler and the Lifestyle Pavilion by Babylonstoren among others. sanlamhmc.co.za
